

Request $1,000 of Library Materials to Empower Your Research

Welcome to the Auraria Campus!

As you embark on your research as new faculty members, all of us at your Auraria Library aim to be an indispensable partner throughout your research lifecycle by providing access to high-quality resources, services, and expertise— 24/7.

One way we do this is by providing $1,000 for new faculty research material requests. These funds are designed to support your new faculty research and creative activities by making sure our collections have what you need, when you need it.

Material purchased will become part of the Auraria Library's collection, but you'll have priority access.

- New full-time permanent faculty are eligible during their first two years of appointment.
- Up to $1,000 is available per faculty member, while funds last.
- Funds can be requested for one-time purchases only.
- Eligible materials include but are not limited to books, ebooks, back issues of journals, DVDs, CDs, and streaming media.
- Requests for electronic resources, including ebooks, are subject to license review.

Getting Started

When you discover research materials you need that are not currently available from your Auraria Library, visit go.auraria.edu/newfacultyfunds or scan the QR code below to begin a New Faculty Research Materials Request.

Once submitted, one of our expert librarians will reach out to you to continue the process and use your $1,000 credit for the purchase of your materials.

Discover Your Auraria Library

As you settle into your new faculty role, take the time to discover additional resources available to you at your Auraria Library like our Ask Us 24/7 Chat, Research Consultations, and Instruction Services at library.auraria.edu/faculty-resources

